

Hostel Rules & Regulations

Greenfield University — Office of Student Affairs

Version: 2.1 | Owner: Student Affairs Department | Effective: January 1, 2025

1. Eligibility and Allotment

Hostel accommodation is available to all full-time enrolled students subject to seat availability. Allotment is made on the basis of distance from hometown, academic year, and merit. Students must submit the hostel application form before the deadline published each semester.

- Priority is given to students residing more than 150 km from the campus.
- First-year students are allotted rooms in dedicated first-year blocks.
- Re-allotment requests for room/block changes can be submitted once per academic year.
- Hostel allotment is cancelled automatically upon deregistration from the university.

2. Check-In and Check-Out

Students must complete check-in formalities within 3 days of the semester start date. Late check-ins require prior written approval from the Hostel Warden.
