- Reference books, journals, and periodicals are available for in-library use only and cannot be borrowed.
- Reserve section books (marked with a red sticker) may be borrowed for overnight use only (issued after 5:00 PM, returned by 9:00 AM next morning).
- New arrivals cannot be borrowed for the first 30 days of acquisition.

4. Return and Renewal Rules

Books must be returned by the due date stamped on the issue slip. Late returns attract a fine as per the schedule below:

User Category	Fine per Day (per book)	Maximum Fine Cap
Undergraduate Student	■5 per day	■150 per book
Postgraduate Student	■5 per day	■150 per book
PhD Scholar	■3 per day	■90 per book
Faculty / Staff	■2 per day	■60 per book

- Books can be renewed online via the Library Portal, at the issue counter, or by phone.
- Renewals are not permitted if another student has placed a hold request on the same book.
- A book cannot be renewed more than the maximum allowed number of times consecutively.
- Unpaid fines exceeding ■500 will block issuance of semester transcripts and certificates.

5. Lost or Damaged Books

If a borrowed book is lost or returned in damaged condition, the following charges apply:

- Lost book: Replacement cost of the book (current market price) + ■200 processing fee.
- Minor damage (torn pages, minor water stains): Fine of ■100 to ■300 at librarian's discretion.
- Major damage (binding broken, significant defacement): Replacement cost of the book.
- Loss or damage must be reported immediately. Fines continue to accrue until the matter is resolved.

6. Digital Resources and E-Library

Students have 24/7 access to the university's digital resources using their student login credentials:

- JSTOR, Scopus, IEEE Xplore, and SpringerLink are accessible through the library portal.
- E-books can be borrowed for up to 7 days via the OverDrive platform (max 2 at a time).
- Sharing of login credentials for digital resources with external individuals is strictly prohibited.
- Downloaded articles and papers are for personal academic use only.

7. Code of Conduct Inside the Library

- Maintain silence in all reading areas. Group discussions are permitted only in designated discussion rooms.
- Mobile phones must be kept on silent mode. Calls must be taken outside the library.
- Food and beverages are not allowed inside the library (sealed water bottles permitted).
- Personal belongings must be deposited at the bag counter. The library is not responsible for any theft.
- Highlighting, writing, or defacing library books is a punishable offence.
- Smoking is strictly prohibited on library premises.

Note: Repeat violations of library conduct rules may result in suspension of library privileges for up to one semester.
